The total compares to the 1959 five-month statistics of 375 permits, including 128 for homes, with a total value of $3,200,254. The total new construction for the five-month period this year was $1,997,456, less than $300 short of 2,000,000.

Last minute permits issued for May increased total new construction for the month to $335,288, consisting of 96 permits of which 17 were for new dwellings. ## Boy, 16, Shot In Scuffle Last Night On Slough Road

A teenage Madison youth is in serious condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital as a result of a shooting incident last night on a tavern parking lot at Chouteau Slough. He is Joseph Wade, 16, of 1311 Madison avenue, who was wounded in the abdomen and a hand by the same bullet.

The Wade youth, who works at a sandwich shop and lives with his grandparents, told county nightriders that he was carrying the gun, a fully-loaded .32 caliber revolver, and that the slug passed entirely through his body and fell out of his waist.

The bullet first pierced the palm of Wade's left hand and then entered the left side of his abdomen, according to Wade. The slug passed entirely through his body and fell out of his waist.

Wade said he was being chased by a group of youths who were taking him into custody and questioned, and all were released to their parents.

Wade, who is 16, was taken to the hospital by ambulance, where he was treated for his wounds. He is now in the hospital, and his condition is serious.

Argument Over Cars
An argument over a $25 debt in a car-wash transaction which had been cancelled resulted in the shooting, according to Wade and the other youth, who was identified by the sheriff's office as 16-year-old Robert Krug of 2823 Denver street. Four other youths who had been with Wade and Krug also were taken into custody and questioned, and all were released to their parents.

New Budget For City Set At $1,457,600

A proposed city budget of $1,457,677 is being studied by Granite City council members and will be presented for discussion at next Monday night's session. It was announced this week from the office of Mayor Davis.

The new budget, which includes $25 monthly pay increases for all city employees, is $37,781 higher than last year's actual expenditures and is $184,142 less than last year's $1,641,820 budget. The budget cut is virtually complete in a $183,738 reduction in anticipated expenditures for the fire department, resulting from completion of construction on the new fire station.

The proposed new budget includes a section for special improvements which was not listed in last year's appropriation. It totals $28,477 and includes $20,000 for resurfacing Broadway street, $5000 for a storm sewer along Franklin avenue at Johnson road, $4027 for a storm sewer along Melrose avenue and $183,738 for the new fire station.

Other new items set forth in the budget are $700 for purchase of an alcohol testing machine for the police department, $3500 for new police equipment resulting from a new vehicle purchased by the Federal Communications Commission, $6000 for construction of a new bookmobile for the public library, and $4200 for the public library.

Budget-wise, there are reductions in a number of city departments and last year's budget. Actual expenditures last year were $13,914 for fire hydrant rental and $10,470 for street lighting.

A breakdown of the new budget figures by departmental totals, and a listing of actual expenditures and last year's budget amounts, follows, with the listing in the above order:

Legislative—$10,052 new budget, $18,423 actual expenditures, $19,102 last year's budget.

Executive—$14,373, $13,816 actual expenditures, $13,816 last year's budget.

Inquest Today On Woman Killed By Car On Sidewalk

An inquest is being conducted in Madison this afternoon in the May 23 death of Mrs. Barbara Edgington, 35, who was struck by an auto while walking along a sidewalk in the 300 block of Madison avenue.

The inquest, to be conducted by Deputy Coroner Francis Lahey, was scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. today at the Lahey funeral home.

Mrs. Ruth Elaine Barr, 23, of 2535 Pontoon road, whose north-bound car ran onto the sidewalk after she slumped away from the steering wheel, was released Tuesday from St. Elizabeth Hospital and was booked on a technical charge by Madison police.

Charged with reckless homicide "for the purpose of hurting her for the coroner's inquest," Mrs. Barr was released on $2000 property bond to appear at the inquest, police said.

Mrs. Edgington, who resided at 1223 Fifth street, Madison, was killed instantly when struck by the car, suffering a skull fracture. Witnesses said the Barr auto picked up speed after the driver appeared to "black out." It veered across the curb and against a brick building, skidding along the building toward the corner of Fourth street.

3rd Sweepstakes Award To GC Family of Three

The keys to a two-door Chevrolet Corvair, final grand award in the Associated Retailers and Civic Association's Sweepstakes, were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Shone of 2112 Ames avenue yesterday afternoon.

Shone, who is employed in the advertising department of the Press-Record, said payment for drycleaning and laundering at the Alnight Cleaners qualified him for the award in the seventh annual sales promotion.

Shone and his wife, Joyce, together with their three-year-old son, Donald, trade regularly at the cleaning establishment, and the 29-year-old advertising man said he believes purchases there during the first week of the sweepstakes resulted in his receiving the award.

He had called his wife at home, Shone related, immediately after the qualifying number had been published in the Press-Record which resulted in the giving away of the two previous grand prizes, a Studebaker Lark and Ford Falcon, but had not bothered to call on the third occasion.

The family discovered they qualified for the economy car Tuesday evening, and immediately telephoned the Associated Retailers.

The automobile was presented to the Shone family by Jack Mathews of Mathews Chevrolet Co., from whom the Associated Retailers purchased the car, and by Maurice Rich, president of the Retailers group.

Large Fountain, Lily Pool Being Built In Lee Park

Work is nearing completion of a 60x38-foot rectangular pool, and a 37-foot-diameter circular water fountain has been started and should be completed by July 1. Supt. Marion Groshong reported to the Venice park board last night.

The pool, which contains 18 inches of water, and the fountain, which will feature lighted water cascading down a series of five levels, are being constructed in an area near the Lee Park flower gardens, a short distance north of Broadway. A walk is to be installed around the lily pool, Groshong reported.

The superintendent said a 16x16-foot wooden shelter is being constructed at one of the park's barbecue pits and will be finished this week. Additional shelters, including some of the size of one already erected in the park by the Venice Lions club, are needed and should be installed as soon as possible, he told the board.

Groshong said the park roadway is being resurfaced with rock, and efforts are being made to complete the work prior to the Venice Lions-Juniata Service club festival June 10-12. Concluding his report to the board, he said another watchman is needed and additional playground equipment should be obtained.

President William Ohlendorf Jr. and other members of the board continued the discussion on the condition of the park this spring. Groshong was authorized to obtain a new power lawn mower of 25 to 30-inch width for use by the park staff in mowing near flower beds.

Tentative plans were made for Groshong and Park Attorney Austin Lewis to represent the district at a southern regional meeting of the Illinois Association of Park Districts June 11 in East St. Louis.

Sioux City, the famous grain, livestock and industrial center, is typical of Iowa's good and abundant life. Here recreation is a part of the life. With 43 parks, municipal swimming pools, five golf courses, ice skating rinks, a city rifle base ball, seven libraries and a noted band and Youth Symphony. Your vacation here is a vacation in the heart of the Midwest. For example, the famous Briar Cliff Woman's College, Morningside College and the University of Northern Iowa are all here. The city is also the honor of the youngest member of the 1804 Lewis and Clark Expedition.

The Magic Circle auto trip south spells pure family fun, for fishing through excellent boating facilities, and the fishing is then northeast through rich farmlands to Schaller, the popular fishing town. From Schaller to Iowa's "Great Lakes Country" are the Okoboji Islands, Lake area for fishing and water sports.

From the lovely West Lake Okoboji to one of the world's three true blue lakes. Accommodations for all ranges from swank resorts to simple cabins. The southwest is Le Mars, a thriving town, where you can find the "Park Camp" which calls itself the "Park Camp."

$2000<sup>00</sup> SHOES

Yes sir, that is how much these Hush Puppies are worth to Mr. Bob Vaughn, 1546 4th st., holder of the lucky Sweepstake ticket last week, that enabled him to win a brand new 1960 Ford Falcon auto.

When Bob Vaughn came into our Madison store two weeks ago, he had no idea at all that he was going to buy a pair of Hush Puppy Shoes.

However, after being shown the outstanding features which makes Hush Puppies one of the biggest selling shoes in the country, he wisely agreed that these were the shoes for him and for the $9.98 purchase price his return was approximately $2000 worth of brand new car.

Needless to say Bob will probably preserve these shoes if and whenever they wear out, and we certainly don't blame him.

Boat Club Members

Run Into Trouble On 2-Day Cruise

Members of the Bow Line Boat Club were at work this week repairing damage to the boats of six club members sustained during a Memorial Day weekend "Gypsy cruise" up the Missouri River.

Damage to the six boats, including one which sank on a sandbar 25 miles west of the Missouri's mouth, was estimated at $300 by club Commodore Ray Simmons, who said high waters and floating debris in the river were chiefly responsible.

The boat belonging to club member Harvey Beaver struck a submerged piling in the Missouri, and a 16-inch gash in the fiberglass hull resulted. Beaver was able to pilot his craft to a nearby sandbar before the boat could sink. Temporary repairs were made and the boat was towed back to the club grounds.

Sixteen boats made the two-day cruise and progressed as far as Washington, Mo., where 65 club members and guests stayed overnight, either sleeping in the boats with overnight accommodations or staying in a hotel.

The Bow Line organization plans another similar cruise late June, with possible destinations of Quincy, Memphis, Chester, Peoria or Cape Girardeau.

The club's annual races, set for Aug. 21 at the mouth of the Hartford canal, may have to be canceled unless the Mississippi currently bank-full, falls rapidly within the next two weeks. Simmons said. Logs and debris have been piled high on nearby boat club grounds by recent flood waters, and an access to the grounds was all but obliterated by the same flood, Simmons said.

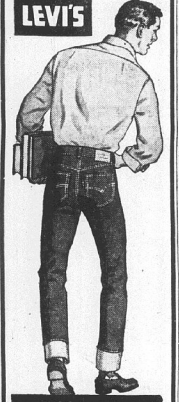

The road must be completely rebuilt, re-graveled and a new culvert installed across a deep ditch before persons willing to attend the races would be able to do so, the commodore said.

Harry Craft, who replaced Lou Boudreau as Kansas City manager in 1957, is now a coach under Boudreau who is managing the Chicago Cubs.

New Exercise Idea

Outdoor Rebound Tumbling Center To Offer 'Bouncy' Sport Here Next Week

Eighteen rebound tumbling devices being installed on a vacant lot at Niedringhaus avenue and Adams street this week should have heads bobbing into view over the tops of parked cars by Monday night, Dan and David Linder, promoters of a local outdoor trampoline center, said today.

Ground was broken for the "Jumpin' Jimmy" trampoline center yesterday morning, and while no formal opening is planned, Dan Linder said a portion of the apparatus will be installed by Monday evening and that the entire center will have been completed by late Tuesday.

The outdoor rebound tumbling idea is a relatively new one which has gained a large following among a wide age group throughout the country since its origination. Its proponents feel that the idea is not a fad, although in most locations the sport is decidedly a seasonal one.

Basically, the outdoor trampoline setup is a simple one. A regulation size trampoline, similar to the apparatus in use in gymnasia, YMCA's and health clubs, is mounted at ground level over a shallow pit, lined with straw, and the user bounces away.

Linder described the exercise as an excellent one for the development of coordination and timing, as well as maintaining good physical condition.

There will be no age limit at the "Jumpin' Jimmy" center, he said, and added that "younger persons, even small children, seem to catch the knack of maintaining their balance on the trampoline more quickly than adults, possibly because they have no fear."

The area here, a triangular lot leased from the Dressel Young Dairy Co., will contain the 18 trampolines within a 105x55 foot rectangle enclosed by fence. Off-street parking will be provided for about 25 autos, Linder said.

The center will be lighted at night, and Linder said a public address system will play "bouncy music" during operating hours. A shelter in case of rain is also to be constructed.

Manager of the business venture will be Vasil Ertimoff. Linder said other qualified persons will act as supervisors at the center, and will offer advice and instruction to novices in the art of rebounding.

The trampolines, both of which are constructed entirely of nylon, are to be placed over 3x15-foot pits which have a depth of 12 inches at the edges and increase to a depth of 39 inches at the center of the house-shaped "where most of the weight of the jumper will be brought to bear."

A wooden frame is constructed flush with the ground level at the top of each pit. To this frame the tubular metal frame of the trampoline itself is attached. All framework will be padded to prevent injury in case of spills by the jumpers. Areas around the jumping pits will be covered with fine gravel.

The rebound tumbling equipment at the local jumping center is the product of the Nissen Trampoline Co. of Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Page Hurls First Shutout of Park Season, Green Hall Triumphs 1-0

Bill "Satch" Page twirled the first shutout of the young park district softball season last night as Green Hall defeated Lincoln Place 1-0 in Class "B" league play at Wilson Park.

Page gave up only one hit, Lincoln Place, the losing pitcher in the opening inning, allowed only four safe hits himself, and the only run of the ballygame was an unearned one in the seventh inning.

Tim Macios scored the deciding tally when he reached base on an error, moved around on a wild pitch by Lipinski. Clayton Harrison was the Green Hall catcher, while Ted Antoff wore the equipment for Lincoln Place.

In other Class "B" action last night, Moose Club 272 pounded out a 15-3 win over the Grantees in a game called at the end of five innings. Moose got only 10 hits, but losing Pitcher

Kenny Mitchell walked a total of 10 batters.

Cotton Singler held the Grand to five hits and picked up the win. Henry Baar was behind the plate. Glen Moore was the Green Hall catcher.

In the Slow Pitch league Tuesday night, Bethel Community made a shambles of Name and Old Presbyterian pitching, scored 11 runs in the second inning and hit four home runs in the course of a 24-0 romp.

Winning Pitcher Bob Widbin, Frank Holst and Walter Holt all honored for the winners in the big second game. David Hessel hit a round-tripper for the winners in the opening inning. Vernon Wadlow was the loser.

John Allen hit Tuesday night's fifth four-bagger as City Auto Repair downed VFW Post 1300 in a slugfest, 9-6. Allen's blow was one of 13 hits for the winners. Post 1300 collected 11.

Madison Plans Dog Shelter, Regulation of Laundromats

Construction of a 26x40-foot concrete building to serve as an animal shelter was authorized Tuesday night by the Madison city council, which plans also to seek authority from the Venice council. The structure is to be located in Venice near the present Madison sewer pumping station.

The council approved a contract naming Virgil Dulgeroff as architect for the project, with his pay to be 6% of the general contract. The shelter will include three interior and three exterior pens, three exterior and three interior isolation pens, a work area, gas chamber and loading area.

The building will serve as a cage and dog pound, and will afford facilities for observation of animals suspected of having rabies. Mayor Stephen Maers said in reviewing the plans. Drawings and specifications were shown, and the mayor said Dulgeroff is consulting with the Madison humane officer on the design.

Maers suggested regulation of the operation of self-service clothing laundromats in Madison, and the council instructed its legal staff to study the proposal.

Reports Safety Hazards
Recalling an early morning fire occurring at one of the laundromats, the mayor said problems are arising from night operation of the business and from the lack of any attendant. He said he prefers not to list incidents that have been reported, lest his comments encourage more offenses, but said they pose hazards to the safety of local residents.

He conceded that hiring of full-time attendants would affect the profits of such businesses, but told the council that public safety must be given first consideration. First Ward Alderman John Bridick agreed with him and pointed out that the owners' interest also is involved since they have a substantial investment in washing and drying equipment.

The mayor called a meeting of the council's finance committee to draw up the 1960-61 city budget at 7 p. m. Wednesday, June 8, at the city hall. Aldermen Richard and George, Bookner, Walton and Ben Bosworth are members of the committee, and other council members also were invited to attend if they wish.

Improve Lights This Year
Maers announced that all 204 Madison street lights will be increased to 4000-lumen light intensity this year. Entirely new brackets and bulbs will be installed at 146 of the lights this year, he reported. At the other 58 lights, new bulbs will be installed this year and the brackets will be changed next year.

Surety bonds obtained from the Maryland Casualty Co. of Baltimore for 1960-61 were approved by the council for City Clerk Percy Lewis, $10,000; City Comptroller E. J. Miller, $10,000; Mayor Stephen Maers, City Clerk Percy Lewis, $10,000; Police Magistrate John Gitchoff, $3000 each; and $2000 each for Police Commissioners Joseph Purcell, Joseph Kratochewick and Mike Sasyk and 14 members of the police department.

The council also approved $2000 Maryland Casualty Co. bonds for six special police and $2000 general bonds for four special police.

Bond premiums amounting to $400 were paid to the McCormack Insurance agency, and $166 was paid to the Cohen-Vasileff agency for fire and extended coverage insurance on city buildings. The A. H. Seebold firm was paid a third estimate totaling $7818 on completed sidewalk installation.

Black & Maers, Corporation Counsel Austin Lewis and other officers complimented First Ward Alderman Emil Ularaki on his seventeenth birthday. They noted that he has been an alderman since 1938.

Venice Expects 2nd-Year Profit From Its Bridge

Although it was not certain due to the effect of the McKinley Base remodeling, it now appears that the city of Venice will profit from its second year of operation of the bridge. Mayor John E. P. said in a talk before the Madison Rotary club Tuesday evening.

The city netted $33,588 for the first fiscal year ending last Sept. 30, and can receive up to $100,000 more if the city is sufficient receipts after all obligations are met. The speaker said traffic held its own and increased during the renovations, and interest has been obtained on improvement funds.

While these factors have aided the bridge finances, the operating budget has already surpassed the $277,000 maximum charted in financial projections when the bridge was purchased. Dr. Lee said. The $277,000 level was first to be reached in 1975. Miscellaneous taxes have increased substantially, and the insurance rate was boosted due to a claim filed by a man who fell through the bridge deck last year, he explained.

Bids on the remodeling were low enough that some extra was afforded, including stronger bolts which will result in less maintenance on deck planking. Dr. Lee said. Since the electrification of a construction worker, all electric power is being put off during the daytime and a temporary bridge lighting system has been set up, he noted.

During the resurfacing of Broadway and Main street, the southern end of Main street has been temporarily barricaded and more railroad switching is being done farther south, resulting in shorter traffic delays at Broadway and Kerr street, the mayor said. He said there will be concrete surface for the Main street area between the bridge and Broadway crossing, and the crossing area also will be concrete and of uniform height, with all railroad scheduled to raise its tracks to conform.

Financing of a $1,000,000 or $1,500,000 grant separate from the city and railroad funds is up to the city and railroad, and the improvement is sought as soon as it is feasible, Dr. Lee said, adding that the present

Industrial, Baptist Leagues At Lee Park

Lee Park in Venice will be the home diamond for the newly organized YMCA Industrial and Baptist softball leagues, which are scheduled to open their regular seasons next week. League organizers Bob Dant and Bill Crabtree said this week.

The Baptist league has scheduled its games on Tuesday and Thursday nights, while the Industrial league will play games on Wednesday nights. The firm is to outline plans for a multi-million dollar wharf development at the Chain of Rocks canal harbor site, and it is hoped work will be started immediately, Raft said.

Port Authority Employs Engineer

The Lochner Co. of Chicago has been employed as consulting engineer for the Tri-City Regional Port District. It was learned this afternoon from Carl Raft, chairman.

A representative of the firm is in the city and a contract is being prepared, Raft said. The firm is to outline plans for a multi-million dollar wharf development at the Chain of Rocks canal harbor site, and it is hoped work will be started immediately, Raft said.

2 From Madison To Visit 18 Countries On European Tour

Two young women from Madison, both connected with public schools in the Quad-Cities, together with a teacher from Albuquerque, N. M., will leave for Europe June 10 for a "Grand Tour Europe" which will encompass 18 European countries including several behind the Iron Curtain, before they return to this country on Aug. 25.

In the party are Miss Nina Dittman, Madison school nurse; Miss Alice Purdes, vocal music instructor in the Venice public schools; and Miss Pat Hart, fifth grade teacher in Albuquerque.

Planning the trip since they returned from a similar summer holiday in 1956, the trio will fly by jet from New York to Paris, then rent an automobile and tour Europe for the next 75 days, hoping to use the highways to get off the beaten tourist path.

In Paris June 11, Miss Dittman departs Monday for New York for a week of sight-seeing. Miss Hart will meet her from Albuquerque, and she and Miss Purdes will join Miss Dittman in New York on June 10. The travelers are due in Paris the next day, thanks to speedy jet travel.

From Paris, tightly packed into a small European auto luggage, they will visit Tours, Bordeaux and Lourdes in France before crossing into Spain to visit Madrid, driving westward to Lisbon, Portugal, before returning to Spain and the seaport of Barcelona.

By June 13 they are scheduled to be in Monte Carlo, Monaco. Two days later they will enter Italy for visits to Pisa, Rome, Florence and Venice. Then over the Alps into Austria and Klagenfurt, Vienna, and Salzburg.

The trio is scheduled to arrive in Munich, Germany, on a year.

Plans to extend the $30,000 Girl Scout lodge improvement fund drive for an indefinite period were announced today by drive chairman Alex Schenck, who reported that $16,336, or slightly more than half of the goal has been pledged or donated.

Campaign reports from the labor, retailers and finance divisions are expected next week the chairman said. The fund drive was scheduled to end May 31, but is being extended in hopes that the established goal can be reached in order to complete a winter lodge at Girl Scout Camp Lakota and make other improvements to the camping area.

TAX FACTS

Expenditures of State governments altogether totaled $31.1 billion in fiscal year ending June 30, 1959, or 10.8% more than in fiscal 1958, according to statistics compiled by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census. State revenue from all sources rose 11.4% in fiscal 1959, amounting to $29.2 billion, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois.

All State's general revenue totaled $24.4 billion in fiscal 1959, up 12.3% from the 1958 amount. Taxes provided $15.8 billion, or nearly 7% of the 1959 total of State general revenue. Intergovernmental revenue from the Federal Government was up 32% from the 1958 amount, with nearly $3.9 billion in 1959, or more of the rise resulting from larger Federal grants for highways. Intergovernmental revenue from local governments amounted to $884 million. Charges and miscellaneous general revenue amounted to $2.3 billion, or 12.4% more than in the preceding year.

Tax revenue for all States was up 6.2% in 1959 from the 1958 total. General sales and gross receipts taxes provided $3.7 billion. This category supplied 23% of total State tax yields in 1959, although this kind of tax was not applied by 16 states. The next ranking source was the sales tax on motor fuel, which produced $3.1 billion. Tobacco sales tax revenue was up 9.6% in 1959 from the 1958 total.

Expenditures exceeding revenues for fiscal 1959 by about $1.9 billion was a marked change from the relationship found in recent years.

Education accounts for a somewhat larger fraction of State spending than any other function. In 1959, the States spent $8.1 billion for education, or 9.9% more than in 1958. Expenditures for highways in 1959 amounted to $7.6 billion, or 14.2% more than in the previous year. Expenditure for public welfare totaled $3.2 billion, or 9.1% more than in 1958. Spending for health and hospitals, the fourth major State function, rose 8.2% to total $2.3 billion in 1959.

What are CAPERS

What are capers? Why do we stock them? What is trace element sea salt? What is anchovy paste? Did you know we stock these items and why?

Possibly no more than one out of 5000 families use any one of them. The space they take up on the shelves is not profitable. These items do little to contribute to our volume. They are among the 5000 items we stock in our stores. We have some 66 different spices and roughly 4 of them make up the major volume. That means 62 of these are slow sellers. Our customers are changing. They want more variety. People are staying at home more and are eating better and with greater imagination. They are busier, they want more convenience. As an example, our customer demands compel us to handle over 160 items of prepared cake mixes, icings, and doughs. All this is merely to tell you that we are changing with you. Our stores naturally have to become larger to accommodate these new items. We do believe, however, that people have not changed in one respect. They still want good values. We keep this thought continually before us and will make every effort to furnish you all your food at lower prices.

Gov. William G. Stratton has approved a bill passed by the First Special Session of the 71st General Assembly appropriating $35,000,000 for relief. Applicants for general assistance must be certified and must re-apply before Dec. 1. Eligibility of applicants must be determined and recertification of recipients will be required beginning Aug. 1. The bill also requires that able-bodied adult male recipients be employed in public work.

White-tailed deer herds in prairie counties of central and northern Illinois are increasing to a point where control is necessary, according to the state Department of Conservation. The deer have moved into the crop fields and small watercourses and are causing serious damage on some farms. A survey has shown a concentration of deer in five northern townships of DeKalb county and an estimated 175 in Boone county. On one farm in DeKalb, 194 were counted. Under average Illinois conditions an annual increase of 20% is expected in a deer herd, and under ideal conditions the increase is greater.

Rifles are prohibited for deer hunting in Illinois and before shotgun hunting is permitted the Department of Conservation determines the number of hunters that safety of the estimated county deer population will allow. Hunters are required to wear a cap and vest or coat of solid red, orange or yellow to lessen the danger of being mistaken for a deer by another hunter.

Immature population of the state's five penitentiaries in April was 245 above April 1939. There were 10,141 persons confined in the five institutions. Paroles numbered 2148—100 over April of last year.

More than $2300 will be offered in cash premiums for the best oil and water colors in the 14th annual Professional Art Exhibit at the Illinois State Fair, Friday, Aug. 12, through Sunday, Aug. 21. Entry blanks and instructions are now available. Deadline for entry intent is July 10.

A free exhibit sponsored by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission will portray uses of atomic energy in the fields of medicine, research, industry and agriculture. The "Atomic Work" display is one of the newest exhibits of the commission.

Entry blanks and instructions for the 1960 Illinois State Fair exhibition may be obtained by writing the Philistine Exhibition, Illinois State Fair, Springfield. The exhibition will feature postage stamps of the Civil War and the 1860s. A special stamp office, established through arrangements with the U. S. Post Office Department, practically no soybeans. Most of these crops are usually planted by this date. The corn that has been planted is chiefly in the bottom lands of the southwestern part of the county and eastward along the south county line.

It's about time to start the first cutting of alfalfa hay, and red clover will soon be ready. A little alfalfa has been cut.

Several farmers have mentioned planting earlier varieties of soybeans if the delay comes, but most farmers will not go to the early kinds until well into June. The Clark, most widely grown variety in this area, can be planted up to mid-June and have time to mature a crop in most years. Many farmers are planting the new Shelby variety this year. So far it has yielded somewhat less than the Clark, but matures about a week earlier. This gives more time to grow wheat following soybean harvest.

Activities of vegetable growers and home gardeners have of course been slow or entirely stopped. Early planted sweet corn has recovered from the cold weather effects, and with warm days will grow fast.

It may be rather hard to believe, but total rainfall for the year to date is still just about normal in most communities, due to the lack of rain or snow in January and February.

Several losses of livestock and damage to buildings from lightning and strong winds have been reported. Unsettled weather naturally makes people apprehensive of storms and tornadoes. It's a good idea to hurry to a safe shelter when storms threaten. Being out in the open country is especially hazardous.

A new pest rotation plan, similar to a system described in this column recently, has been installed by Vernon Becker of Moro township for his Brown Swiss and Holstein dairy herd. The pasture is an alfalfa-grass mixture. The cows are eating the forage quite evenly. They are moved to new areas daily, with electric fence separating the strips.

Hay-crushing machines slashed and cut during time of alfalfa tests by University of Illinois agricultural engineers last spring.

will offer stamp collectors an opportunity to obtain past issues of U. S. stamps and "off-shoot" items.

A female coyote weighing 32 pounds was killed recently in Douglas county northwest of Oakland near the Embarras river. Identification of the animal, larger than most wolves about one year old, was made by a naturalist with the state Department of Conservation and the Natural History Survey. The coyote's grizzled grayish coat indicated it may have been part dog. Such brush wolves, entirely different from timber wolves, are found at times in almost any part of Illinois.

An historic preservation workshop to study the architectural and cultural heritage of the upper Midwest, for the purpose of preserving historic sites will be conducted June 10-12 in Springfield. The three-day meeting is sponsored by the Illinois State Historical Society, the Illinois Department of Conservation and the National Trust for Historic Preservation and is being underwritten by a grant from the Lilly Endowment of Indianapolis. Reservations, limited to persons actually engaged in the preservation or operation of historic sites, are now being received by Richard S. Hagen, Room 100, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill.

In all three tests, crushed hay was ready for hailing at least a day earlier than uncrushed hay. Several Madison county farmers are now using such machines.

A heavy infestation of field mice has damaged an alfalfa crop on the farm of Pete Castelli of Wood River township. About all that can be done now is to cut the hay unusually close to break up the mice colonies.

Most home plans now these days are for city lots. These plans are not so much for before they meet the special needs of farm living. In most city plans, space is lacking for the back entrance to work clothes storage, wash-up, farm business records and between-chores relaxation. Also, family rooms are too often inaccessible from the rear or service entrance.

The guide book, "Contemporary Farmhouses," and other farm-house plans that take most of the special farm needs into consideration are available at the farm adviser's office.

Some changes in new equipment for applying granular soil insecticides with the corn planter have been made. Also, recommendations for the amounts of material to use. If you have such new equipment, be sure you use the right amount of chemical.

No more impact of soil by tractor wheels since he added dual wheels to his heavy machinery moving over the land. It can be worse in wet years, a good reason for being especially careful not to get onto the fields until the soil is dry enough to work well.

Growers of certified Shelby soybean seed in Madison county report they have sold all their seed for this year.

Some farmers have remarked they have never seen wheat head out so fast as during the past couple of weeks. The heavy rains have speeded the growth, and the more general use of fertilizers have probably had some effect. Some fields, especially the Knox variety, are showing considerable smut.

Red clover is blooming, and will soon be ready to cut. The best time to cut it is between half-bloom and full-bloom.

Used cardboard milk cartons may be cut up in small sections to provide a supply of paraffin for lubricating sticking doors and windows. Just rub one of the sheets over the surface that needs lubricating.

Add tripe of onion, green pepper and ham to plain omelet and you have the filling for a western sandwich. Brown the vegetables and meat slightly before adding to the eggs. Serve the sandwich with chili sauce or catsup.

A dozen varieties of onions have been developed to grow to a more uniform size for easier handling, and with heavier scales to withstand machine sorting, says the College of Agriculture at the University of Wisconsin.

'Music Under The Stars' Choral Rehearsal Tonight

The first rehearsal for singers interested in taking part in the Granite City music district's annual "Music Under The Stars" program this summer will be held at 7 o'clock tonight in the vocal music room at the Granite City senior high school, Director Warren Simpkins said today.

Simpkins said he expects to work with about 75 voices which will form a choral group for two separate programs to be presented on three evenings on an outdoor stage in Wilson Park. The director's current plans call for a musical show on June 28, featuring soloists and ensemble work; and an evening of the music of Stephen Foster, to include a operetta written by the composer. The latter program is to be presented both July 25 and 26.

Farm Column

—By TRUMAN W. MAY—

Madison County Farm Adviser The University of Illinois College of Agriculture has just published a new 16-page circular on "Farm Tenancy Laws in Illinois". The new publication is written by N. G. P. Krausz, professor of agricultural law at that University. He points out that Illinois law does not require a written farm lease, but it is a valuable document to have when a dispute arises.

If a farm is rented under an oral lease, common law and custom normally control the operation of the farm. But these may not be suitable for a specific farm. Special oral agreements are often quite difficult to prove. Krausz lists five legal requirements for a written lease:

1. Both parties must sign it. If the farm is owned jointly, all owners should sign. To cover possible death of one of the parties, it is advisable for all persons who have any interest in the land to sign the lease. But it is not legally necessary for the spouse of an owner or tenant to sign a lease to make it effective.

2. A definite period during which the farm is to be leased must be stated.

3. The property to be leased must be accurately described.

4. A landlord and tenant must be named.

5. The payment of rent must be provided for.

A good lease will also contain provisions for operating the farm and certain rights and duties of owner and tenant.

Copies of the new circular, also printed lease forms, may be obtained from the farm adviser's office.

Other than delaying field operations, resulting in much work to be done in a few days as the weather permits, the rains have not yet seriously retarded spring planting. However any future rainy weather will delay work on most farms enough to cause more problems. A lot of warm sunshine would enable farmers to get a lot of corn and soybean planted. So far only about 5% of the corn has been planted and

25 YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the files of the Granite City Press-Record

The Press-Record did not publish Monday, May 27 because of the strike at the local electrical company. This issue was published with the cooperation of an Alton newspaper.

A group of citizens met Monday night at the YMCA and started a movement for municipal ownership of electrical service here. A number of cities elsewhere, also crippled by the utility workers' strike, already have begun movements for city-owned electric plants and there is a growing sentiment for cooperative action among these towns to bring about fulfillment of their separate efforts.

Prominent business men and employers who have been compelled to reduce operations in all of the 48 southern Illinois communities affected by the electric strike will appear in Springfield next Tuesday morning seeking to bring pressure for an early settlement. They expect to show that nearly 200,000 people are affected by the strike, that 5000 more people have been thrown out of jobs and that business and industry are partially, if not completely, paralyzed. Meanwhile, the crippled condition of business in this community continues.

J. Warren Bennett, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, 2544 Edwards street, yesterday was notified by Congressman Edwin Scheffer that he was selected for the appointment to West Point Military Academy from this congressional district.

Although the appropriation ordinance was incomplete and action on it had to be postponed, the city council Monday night agreed upon the proposed $106,603 budget for this fiscal year, which started May 1. The new budget is $204 below that of last year and $5608 above the actual 1934-35 expenditures.

Unaware that a gas pipe was leaking in the basement of his home, a Madison resident entered it with a lighted candle yesterday morning and was burned about the face in the explosion that followed. He had to use a candle light because of the electrical workers' strike which has deprived his home of electricity, he said.

To safeguard patrons against an indefinite interruption of electricity furnished by their own generating system, although none has occurred, the management of a local theatre has installed automobile headlights at each side of the stage which will furnish ample illumination for an orderly exit if that is found necessary. The headlights open

Before you buy any health aids or home remedy we invite you to ask us first for our professional opinion.

When we studied pharmacy we had to learn the properties and benefits of medicines, drugs and chemicals. We also have to know all the necessary cautions to observe during their use. Sometimes impossible claims are made by advertisements. Many times, instead of taking a patent medicine, you would be wiser to consult a physician. When you ask our professional opinion, we promise an honest, well informed answer.

Miss Blaylock Represents GC In 'Miss Illinois' Pageant

An attractive Granite City brunette who has fared quite well in a large number of beauty contests in the greater St. Louis area during the past year, is leaving today for Mount Vernon to compete for the "Miss Illinois" title.

She is Beverlee Blaylock, 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Blaylock of 3214 Wabash avenue, who was named "Miss Granite City" by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce in April, and will represent this city as the statewide Jaycee organization conducts eliminations to select Illinois' most beautiful and talented young woman.

Miss Blaylock, who is employed as office manager for the Tri-City Regional Port Authority here, will be accompanied to the contest by Mrs. Hannu Schmidt, chaperone, and Gerald Thebeau, a member of the local Jaycees, escort. They will depart for Mount Vernon, and a large contingent of local Junior Chamber of Commerce members is expected to attend the contest finals on Saturday.

37 Contestants
The "Miss Illinois" contest was originally scheduled as a two-day event, but the large number of entries (37) prompted contest officials to expand the affair to three days in order to give judges more time in tabulating beauty and talent dividing results.

"I'm taking loads of clothes," Miss Blaylock said, explaining that contestants will be guests at two press conferences and a coffee hour, and will also take part in a parade through downtown Mount Vernon.

Upon their arrival at the state contest, the entries, who represent cities and counties from all parts of Illinois, are to be divided into two groups.

Winner Named Saturday

The first group will appear before judges in swimwear attire on Thursday evening, while the second group will wear formal and give individual talent performances. The procedure will be reversed on Friday. Ten finalists will be named Saturday, with further judging scheduled before "Miss Illinois" and her attendants are named Saturday evening.

Miss Blaylock is probably one of the best qualified contestants entered in the Mount Vernon eliminations, if the number of beauty titles won is any gauge. Last Friday she was named "Miss Chase Hotel" at the National Press Photographers' contest in St. Louis.

She was also the Press-Record's successful candidate for the title "Greater St. Louis Sheba" in conjunction with the world premier of the motion picture "Solomon and Sheba," March of Dimes queen in Granite City, and "Miss Marine Corps" and "Miss Saint Louis" in the St. Louis Armed Forces Day parade.

She plans to present a variety act consisting of a comedy, monologue, song while accompanying herself on the piano, and a reading during the talent portion of the "Miss Illinois" contest.

Two other contestants from this area are entries in the "Miss Illinois" contest. They are Roseann Ritz, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritz, who was selected as "Miss Collinsville" and Miss Claude Thompson, 18, who will represent East St. Louis in the beauty pageant. Mr. and Mrs. Ritz are former Venice residents.

Plans Announced For PTA Workshops

George Moore, adult education coordinator of the Area PTA Council, announced plans today for the annual council workshop to be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 7, at Coolidge Junior high school. The training session is held for all new officers of local PTA units and interested PTA members.

Harry C. Wood, area council president, has asked that all school units be well represented as this workshop can be given only once a year. Announcement will be made on special plans for training funds for PTA units through local projects.

Brooks succeeds his father, the late Robert B. Brooks, who died this spring. The appointment and others listed by the mayor were confirmed by the council, as the appointments for the 1960-61 fiscal year were completed.

Initial appointments two weeks ago listed City Comptroller E. J. Miller, Police Chief Barney Fraundorf, Street Supt. Stanley Lucas, Corporation Counsel Austin Lewis, City Attorney Nick Vastleff, Civil Defense Director Harry R. Johnson, Bridge Supt. Cecil Dant and Anthony Conroy to the police pension board, Stanley Krakowiak to the board of police commissioners, Claude Echols to the playground and recreation board and Mrs. Ruth Fogle, Mrs. Sarah Purcell and Mrs. L. C. Harlan to the library board.

Those named this week besides Brooks included Mike Krieschok and Sam Chomko as city health officers; Steve Kaman, building inspector; David Johnston, Illinois highway consultant to the bridge; the firm of Hardesty and Hanover of New York, bridge consulting engineers; Clay Newton, sewer and plumbing inspector; and Joseph Scrum, city hall custodian. All were re-appointed.

No humane officer was designated. Action also was taken on the street department, bridge employees, volunteer firemen, special police who serve without pay and civil defense auxiliary police, based on recommendations by Lucas, Dant, Miller, Fraundorf, Johnson and Trebing.

Designated As Employees
In all cases, the appointees and employees were listed as city employees, qualifying them for workers' compensation benefits, Mayor Maers explained.

A list of the departmental appointments follows:
Street department — Albert Topal, assistant superintendent; laborers, Paul Beserman Jr., John Michels, Elmer Smith, Paul Drayton, Stanley Blazek and John Kaminski; garbage department laborers, Mike Bisto, John Rosse and Jesse Terrell; and sewer department laborer, Fred Riddle, Drayton, Blazek, Kaminski, Rosse and Terrell are additions to the list of salaried employees, having been employed as hourly workers in previous years.

Girl Scout Day Camp

Registration Continues

Registrations for the Tri-City Girl Scout Council's day camp sessions at Camp Lakota in July and August were still being accepted today at the council office, 1415 Niedringhaus Avenue.

A council spokesman said that the camp is especially heavy. Neighborhood No. 3 Girl Scouts will camp during the week of July 18-22 at the Glen Carbon site.

Dates during which other neighborhoods will attend the day camp include July 11-15 for Two, July 25-29 for Four and Aug. 1-5 for One. The week-long camping program for each neighborhood will include outdoor cooking, camping skills and handicraft instruction. Girl Scouts will return to their homes each evening during the camping week, traveling to and from Camp Lakota by bus.

Response to a request for additional adult leaders and camp counselors has been good, the council reported. Day camp co-chairman Mrs. George Eubank conducted training courses for the adult leaders yesterday at Camp Lakota.

Mrs. Charles Rodell is also a co-chairman of this year's day camping program. Mrs. Denise Schmitz will serve as day camp director.
